Girl Scouts STEM Event Aims to Close the Gender Gap

WHO: Girl Scouts of Greater Atlanta will host a STEM (science, technology, engineering, and math) Expo to engage girls in hands-on opportunities exploring engineering, computer science, and the physical sciences.

WHAT: A one-day event for girls and their families featuring more than 40 STEM activities, demonstrations and performances. Activities include:

- Crime Solving with Forensics – Use blood typing, hair analysis and fingerprinting to solve the mystery of who stole the Girl Scout cookies
- Revving-Up with Remote Control Cars – Understanding the physics behind velocity, drifting and inertia as a Girl Scout car races along a custom built race track
- Riding an actual hovercraft and powering a human hamster wheel
- Take home STEM goodie bags to the first 500 participants.

Workshops - We will offer workshops for ages 5-17 to dive into the wonders of STEM! Workshops are on a first come, first serve basis.

Exhibitors - Exhibitors include Maker Faire | Patriots Point Naval & Maritime Museum | eCYBERMISSION | Children's Museum of Atlanta | Zoo Atlanta | | North Fulton Amateur Radio League | Discover Science Center | Kell Robotics | Georgia Power/TWIG | Atlanta Science Festival | Hot Shot RC Raceway |
