

National Leadership Awards: Grades 6 – 12

Silver Torch (Girl Scout Cadette), Silver and Gold Torch (Girl Scout Senior), Gold Torch (Girl Scout Ambassador)

These awards encourage girls to take on leadership roles both within and outside of Girl Scouting. Girls must first complete one Program level specific Journey and then serve one full term in a leadership role. This role could be anything from the year book editor, president of a club, or even serving on the Girl Scout planning board.

Community Service Bar

Girl Scout Cadettes, Girl Scout Seniors, and Girl Scout Ambassadors may earn a community service bar for their program level. The girl must identify an organization she would like to volunteer with. The organization will need to agree to give her instructions about the work she'll be doing. Girls can work with any non-profit organization that they would like, with their Troop Leader's approval. (All 501– C3 organizations and places of worship are non-profit organizations.)

Service to Girl Scouting Bar

Girl Scout Cadettes, Girl Scout Seniors, and Girl Scout Ambassadors can earn a Service to Girl Scouting bar for their program level. Girls receive this award by completing at least 20 hours of service to Girl Scouting. Examples include: Helping a younger troop on a Journey, volunteering at day camp, helping at council events, etc. These hours are not limited to one specific event or project with Girl Scouts.

Service hours for these bars need to be separate from those girls use toward other awards. Each bar can only be earned once during each program level and represents a new project.

Any questions should be directed to Teenslead@gsgatl.org.
